10 U.S. Code § 832 - Art. 32. Preliminary hearing

(a) Preliminary Hearing Required.—

(2)The purpose of the preliminary hearing shall be limited to the following:

(A) Determining whether there is probable cause to believe an offense has been committed and the accused committed the offense.

(B) Determining whether the convening authority has court-martial jurisdiction over the offense and the accused.

(C) Considering the form of charges.

(D) Recommending the disposition that should be made of the case.

(f) Effect of Evidence of Uncharged Offense.—If evidence adduced in a preliminary hearing under subsection (a) indicates that the accused committed an uncharged offense, the hearing officer may consider the subject matter of that offense without the accused having first been charged with the offense if the accused—

- 1. is present at the preliminary hearing;*
- 2. is informed of the nature of each uncharged offense considered; and*
- 3. is afforded the opportunities for representation, cross-examination, and presentation consistent with subsection (d).*
