

ADRIAN FISHER- Perceived as more corrupt

State Representative Adrian Fisher, Democrat, District 16

Corruption Perception Score: F (53%) Highly corrupt

What is the M2Q Corruption Score? The Motion to Quash (M2Q) Corruption Score is an index of multiple sources. These sources are combined to produce an overall score.*

Legend

Perceived as less Corrupt		Perceived as more corrupt
100-90	89-80	79-70	69-60	59-0

Source data

The goal is to capture expert assessments of various public sector corruption practices. This includes bribery and misuse of public funds. It also involves abuse of public office for personal gain, nepotism in civil service, and state capture.

The M2Q corruption perception score is a powerful representation of the stand against corruption in Louisiana. It serves as a reminder of the importance of transparency and honesty in our political system. The scorecards offer precise and reliable judgment of campaign finance abuse. They give sound judgment particularly for those interested in elections and the stand against corruption.

**Campaign finance reports were obtained from the Louisiana Ethics Board website. Federal Award profiles were found at  USASPENDING.gov

Pandemic Oversight

The U.S. Government continues to pursue a quiet but active campaign against Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) recipients believed to have committed fraud. The government is expected to continue to pursue criminal charges, with a focus on civil False Claims Act cases.

These taxpayer backed funds were meant for struggling businesses. Issuing generous campaign contributions after receiving PPP loans raises concerns about the legitimacy of the need for assistance.

Receiving donations is not enough to prompt an investigation. However, generous political contributions from PPP disaster recovery recipients and a record of Ethics complaints are enough evidence to lead to criminal prosecution.

Join the Campaign for Judicial Integrity in Louisiana.

The Campaign for Judicial Integrity in Louisiana, led by Motion to Quash LLC, seeks to eliminate judicial corruption by prohibiting judges from accepting attorney contributions. The initiative aims to provide citizens with the tools to challenge corrupt judges, ensuring fair trials and restoring integrity to the judicial system. Citizens are encouraged to contact their legislators for support.

History

Medicaid Provider Fraud

Billing for services not provided, "upcoding" (billing for more expensive services), or duplicate billing.

The Medicaid Fraud Control Unit \(MFCU\) investigates fraud by providers and recipients.

Reports can be filed with the HHS Office of Inspector General \(OIG\) or through a qualified whistleblower attorney, which is often necessary to trigger False Claims Act (FCA) protections.

Whistleblowers reporting Medicaid fraud are primarily protected by the federal False Claims Act (FCA), which enables private individuals ("relators") to file qui tam lawsuits on behalf of the government, offering protection from employer retaliation, including job reinstatement and compensation for damages. Successful whistleblowers can receive 15–30% of recovered funds.

Collusion

Collusion in litigation is a deceitful, secret agreement between opposing parties to manufacture a fake dispute, mislead the court, or defraud a third party. Parties may pretend to be adversaries to obtain a specific legal ruling or to secure a favorable precedent for future, unrelated cases.

Dear Special Agent [REDACTED]

Recently, I obtained audio evidence from witness [REDACTED] regarding Alan Breithaupt, attorney for Defendant Adrian Fisher, and James Rountree, former attorney for Plaintiff [REDACTED].

The audio supports [REDACTED] complaint that Beithaupt and Rountree colluded before a hearing to extract a more favorable outcome for Defendant Fisher; and confirms claims of Alan Braithaupt's repeated threats to file sanctions against [REDACTED], as a form of retaliation.

Please receive this information for the folder already in your office regarding requests to intervene and to investigate Adrian Fisher's misuse of government funds, fraud, including medicaid fraud, LCM Financial INC., commingling of funds and bribery.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Tracie Burke, President

RE: ALAN BREITHAAPT, JAMES ROUNTREE; ADRIAN FISHER; JUDGE
MARCUS HUNTER; JUDGE JAMES STEPHENS; JUDGE JEFFREY COX; COLLUSION; ABUSE OF OFFICE; FRAUD; RETALIATION; REQUEST TO INTERVENE

Dear Special Agent [REDACTED]

Please receive this information, referencing Case No. C-20069488 [REDACTED] v Fisher, regarding Abuses of Power and fraud before the court, committed by Alan Breithaupt, James Rountree, Adrian Fisher, Judge Marcus Hunter, Judge James Stephens, and Judge Jeffery Cox. The Abuses of Power and fraud before the court have had a direct impact on Plaintiff [REDACTED] economic, physical, social, and emotional well being. These abuses were perpetrated by government officials, who are involved in government contracts and receive government grants.

In a lawsuit filed by [REDACTED] in 2015, Plaintiff submitted disclosures of racketeering and other wrongdoing committed by Defendant Adrian Fisher.

On February 6, 2023, James Rountree, attorney for Plaintiff [REDACTED] and Alan Breithaupt, attorney for Defendant Adrian Fisher, colluded before a hearing to extract a more favorable outcome for Defendant Fisher. On Feb 22, 2023, Judge J. Wilson Rambo granted Plaintiff [REDACTED] request to remove Rountree as his attorney.

Subsequently, Alan Breithaupt, who serves on the LADB, the Adjudicative Committee, and as a Director of the Northeast Louisiana Bar Foundation, retaliated against Plaintiff [REDACTED] by filing sanctions against him. Alan Breithaupt is subject to removal for his misuse of position of power to take unjust advantage of Plaintiff [REDACTED] and his organization. RULE 8.4. MISCONDUCT

It is my consideration to respectfully request an investigation and review of [REDACTED] v Fisher to determine that Plaintiff [REDACTED] is protected by the Whistleblower Protection Act for his disclosures of racketeering and other wrongdoing by Defendant Fisher; and motion for the AG's office to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff [REDACTED]

Under common law precedent, attorneys general have the authority to represent, defend, and enforce the legal interests of both the state itself and of the public. The jurisdiction's constitution and statutes also establish the attorney general's authority in other areas.

Although the Supreme Court has made clear that "federal fraud law leaves much public corruption to the States (or their electorates) to rectify," the federal government prosecutes some forms of public corruption.

I'm requesting the US Attorney's Office to take its own legal investigation to identify misuse of government funds and bribes through campaign contributions.

The face of Plaintiff [REDACTED] complaint contains enough factual matter to raise a reasonable expectation that discovery will reveal relevant evidence of each element of the party's claim. Lormand, 565 F.3d at 257.

It is error for Judge Marcus Hunter to render judgment on the pleadings, where by the pleadings there is raised an issue of fact, upon which a valid judgment might be rendered.

FRAUD BEFORE THE COURT:

On 10/9/2018, DEFENDANT ADRIAN FISHER issued a campaign contribution of $500 to JUDGE MARCUS HUNTER.

On 5/25/2017, BREITHAAPT, DUNN, DUBOS, SHAFTO & WOLLESON LLC issued a campaign contribution of $1500 to JUDGE JEFFERY COX.

On 3/18/2016, ANONYMOUS issued a contribution of $350 to JUDGE JEFFERY COX. Prohibited Practices (R.S. 18:1505.2) Using funds from an anonymous source. Anonymous contributions must be transmitted to the State.

On 8/2/2018, BREITHAAPT, DUBOS & WOLLESON, LLC issued a campaign contribution of $2500 to JUDGE JAMES STEPHENS.

On 9/7/2017, JAMES ROUNTREE issued a campaign contribution of $500 to JUDGE JAMES STEPHENS.

On 2/8/2019, JAMES ROUNTREE issued a campaign contribution of $500 to JUDGE JAMES STEPHENS.

On 2/14/2020, SCOTT WOLLENSON, BREITHAAPT, DUNN, DUBOS, SHAFTO & WOLLESON, LLC, issued a campaign contribution of $1000 to DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROBERT TEW.

On 9/24/2020, BREITHAAPT, DUBOS & WOLLESON, LLC issued a campaign contribution of $2500 to DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROBERT TEW.

On 10/20/2011, DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROBERT TEW issued a campaign contribution of $500 to JUDGE MARCUS HUNTER.

On 3/25/2013, DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROBERT TEW issued a campaign contribution of $500 to JUDGE MARCUS HUNTER.

On 2/1/2014, DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROBERT TEW issued a campaign contribution of $150 to JUDGE MARCUS HUNTER

On 10/23/2015, DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROBERT TEW issued a campaign contribution of $500 to JUDGE MARCUS HUNTER

On 9/13/2018, DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROBERT TEW issued a campaign contribution of $250 to JUDGE MARCUS HUNTER.

Plaintiff [REDACTED] fraud claim meets the heightened pleading requirement in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 9(b). Dorsey v. Portfolio Equities, Inc., 540 F.3d 333, 339 (5th Cir. 2008). Under Rule 9(b), a party “must state with particularity the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 9(b). The Fifth Circuit “interprets Rule 9(b) strictly, requiring the [complaining party] to specify the statements contended to be fraudulent, identify the speaker, state when and where the statements were made, and explain why the statements were fraudulent.” Flaherty & Crumrine Preferred Income Fund, Inc. v. TXU Corp., 565 F.3d 200, 207 (5th Cir. 2009). In other words, “Rule 9(b) requires ‘the who, what, when, where, and how’ to be laid out.” Benchmark Elecs., Inc. v. J.M. Huber Corp., 343 F.3d 719, 723 (5th Cir. 2003) (quoting Tel-Phonic Servs., Inc. v. TBS Int’l, Inc., 975 F.2d 1134, 1139 (5th Cir. 1992)). Finally, “although scienter may be ‘averred generally,’ . . . pleading scienter requires more than a simple allegation that a [party] had fraudulent intent. To plead scienter adequately, a [complaining party] must set forth specific facts that support an inference of fraud.” Tuchman v. DSC Commc’ns Corp., 14 F.3d 1061, 1068 (5th Cir. 1994) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 9(b)).

Louisiana law directly addresses the specific issue of bribes posing as campaign contributions. “Bribery of a candidate is the giving, promising or offering to give, directly or indirectly, a campaign contribution, by a candidate, political committee or other person, with the intention that the candidate will provide or influence another to provide the contributor or another person a position of public employment, an appointive governmental position, a public contract, or anything of apparent present or prospective value.” La. R.S. § 18:1469.

COLLUSION:

Plaintiff [REDACTED] discovered that on Feb 6, 2023, James Rountree colluded with Alan Breithaupt through email by discussing assets and contracts for a proposed order without his knowledge or consent and without notifying him of a court date on the matter. Rountree wrote to Breithaupt, “You mentioned something about profits. If you want to incorporate some language from the ruling, that would be reassuring to your client, I don’t have a problem with that. Or I can do that myself. There’s nothing a liquidator can do without financial records.”

Lawyers are subject to discipline when they violate or attempt to violate the Rules of Professional Conduct, knowingly assist or induce another to do so or do so through the acts of another, as when they request or instruct an agent to do so on the lawyer’s behalf.

Thank you for your time.

Case alleging judge's misconduct fails on appeal

By Zach Parker zach@ouachitacitizen.com

Jul 8, 2020

Fourth Judicial District Court Judge Carl Sharp

The state Supreme Court denied an appeal last month in a racketeering lawsuit in which allegations arose that a now-retired Monroe judge at Fourth Judicial District Court issued favorable rulings to the defendant because of a supposedly close, personal relationship.

On June 22, the Supreme Court rejected a writ filed in [REDACTED] v. Adrian Fisher, Latondra Fisher, and Cognitive Development of Monroe Inc.

The ██████ v. Fisher case stemmed from dispute over ownership of a mental health rehabilitation service company, Cognitive Development of Monroe Inc., or CDCMI, that was launched in 2003. The plaintiff, ██████ and the defendant, Adrian Fisher, were 50-percent owners in the company and disagreed about how to manage the company until one day in June 2006 when ██████ found new locks on the office's doors among other changes ██████ did no further work for the company but sued, seeking damages and liquidation of the company.

Retired Judge Carl Sharp, of Monroe, presided over the ██████ v. Fisher case at Fourth Judicial District Court until he retired from the bench in July 2018, prior to the expiration of his term. After Sharp's retirement, Fourth Judicial District Court Judge Marcus Hunter took over the case and dismissed the lawsuit, including the claims that both parties leveled against each other.

The Second Circuit Court of Appeal upheld most of Hunter's ruling but reversed the court's decision to deny ██████ 50-percent ownership in the company as well as the court's refusal to liquidate CDCMI. Second Circuit Judge James "Jimbo" Stephens of Baskin wrote the Feb. 5 opinion on behalf of a three-judge panel also including judges Jeff Cox and Shonda Stone.

Monroe attorney James “Jim” Rountree represented ██████. In his March 18 writ to the Supreme Court, Rountree argued the Second Circuit profoundly misunderstood part of Sharp’s judgment concerning ██████ exit from the company and asked the Supreme Court to reverse the appeal court’s decision. The high court denied his writ.

Rountree’s response to the Supreme Court’s decision was terse.

Replay

“When the law and facts do not control the outcome of a case, you have to wonder what does,” Rountree said.

Alan Breithaupt, an attorney with the Breithaupt, DuBos and Wolleson law firm in Monroe, represented Fisher in the case. Breithaupt said his clients were pleased to learn the Second Circuit’s judgment would stand.

“Adrian Fisher fulfilled each and every promise that he made to provide the services that made Cognitive Development Center of Monroe a successful provider of mental health rehabilitation services and other services for our community,” Breithaupt said. “On the other hand, the Court of Appeal recognized that plaintiff, ██████████, chose to stop providing services to the Company, as he had promised under his agreement with Mr. Fisher.”

Under the Second Circuit’s ruling, the case was remanded to Hunter’s court to begin the judicial liquidation of CDCMI.

‘Without making a decision’

Some of the controversy surrounding the case centered on claims that Sharp failed to render judgment in the case after a trial began in 2015.

“It was under advisement for more than two years before the trial judge retired without making a decision,” stated Rountree’s March 18 writ to the Supreme Court. “Judgment was rendered by an appointed judge without reference to the evidence in the record, and it was decided by the court of appeal based on facts attributed to the trial judge that were opposite of his findings.”

At the time, Sharp did not provide any reasons for his early retirement. In 2003, the Supreme Court suspended Sharp for 60 days because he failed to issue a judgment in five separate cases and failed to accurately report those cases to the court. Supreme Court records show Sharp was the subject of other complaints about delays in deciding cases as well.

Allegations arise

Other controversial aspects of the ██████████ v. Fisher case pertained to allegations of Sharp’s supposed relationship with the defendant, Fisher. Rountree claimed he and his client had learned of rumors that Fisher and Sharp had a “close personal relationship.” Specifically, Rountree said he learned from a

"Listen, let me give you an elocution on this," Sharp began, "Before this trial started I knew the name Adrian Fisher, but I wouldn't have been able to point him out. You said I appeared in a photograph with him, maybe, maybe not. I don't know him. After this trial started when I saw Mr. Fisher in court and probably before then I began to associate his, you know, him with his name. I've never been in his home. I didn't know anything about the businesses Mr. Fisher was involved in. I think or thought at the time he may have been involved in some car dealership a long time ago.

"But that's about all I know. I found out we are members of the same fraternity or maybe I was reminded of it because I was in his neighborhood one day and there were about twenty-five or thirty cars in front of what I found out to be his residence and I have noticed Judge Jones' car in there. And I can't recall how I found out that was Mr. Fisher's home, but that's what I knew. I've seen Mr. Fisher maybe casually twice while this litigation has taken place. One was at a restaurant called Buffalo Wild Wings and maybe one other time. Actually I think I've seen him more than that but I've taken steps, the usual precautions you take when you have a hotly contested or a strenuously litigated case."

When asked about whether Sharp was at Home Depot with Fisher, Sharp said, "I have no recollection of that."

"I'm not saying it's true," Rountree said. "I've just been told that."

"It's possible," Sharp said. "I'm at Home Depot a lot."

During the hearing, Sharp also denied the allegation that Fisher had completed any work for him.

"He's never done any work for me," Sharp said. "I don't — like I've told you before I've never been in his home and I'm barely acquainted with the man."

Rountree's recusal motion also objected to Sharp's adverse ruling that ██████ should not be awarded any part of the company's profits after his exit from the company in June 2006.

In opposition to Rountree's allegations, Breithaupt argued the recusal motion was untimely and failed to state any valid grounds for recusal.

"When it became evident at the hearing that Judge Sharp had made certain findings of fact which were adverse to ██████████ desperately began to bring forth baseless allegations that Judge Sharp is biased and prejudiced in favor of Fisher to the extent that a recusal is necessary," stated Breithaupt's opposition to the recusal motion.

Breithaupt claimed Rountree had previously mentioned Sharp's fraternity relationship with Fisher around Feb. 17, 2015 — some 21 months before the recusal motion was filed.

"However, the [REDACTED] counsel did not suggest any desire to seek recusal of Judge Sharp on this basis," stated Breithaupt's opposition.

[REDACTED] seeks to circumvent unfavorable findings of fact by Judge Sharp by filing an untimely motion to recuse contrary to Louisiana law," stated Breithaupt's motion. "For clarification, Judge Sharp and Fisher were not in college at the same time. Rather, they each became members of the same fraternal organization, but during different time periods."

Fourth Judicial District Court Judge Daniel "Danny" Ellender denied the motion to recuse Sharp.

'Profound
misunderstanding'

Rountree claimed the Second Circuit's opinion profoundly misunderstood Sharp's original ruling when it ruled that [REDACTED] had "effectively quit" the company. Instead, Rountree argued, Sharp had ruled more favorably to [REDACTED] when the judge stated during an Oct. 18, 2016 hearing, "This is a conclusion of fact: [REDACTED] was effectively forced out of the business as an employee in June 2006 and thereafter was effectively denied any rights that he might derive as an owner of the enterprise. That is CDCMI."

"The decision of the court of appeal resulted from a profound misunderstanding of a statement made during a dialogue intended to encourage [REDACTED] to accept the loss of his interest in his business in return for its value when it was taken from him," stated Rountree's writ. "It is hard to imagine a more gross departure from proper judicial proceedings."

The Second Circuit appeared to rely on statements Sharp made in a court hearing in 2017 that the judge believed [REDACTED] had "effectively quit" the company in 2006. Rountree claimed the judge's statement was taken out of context by the appeal court.

"The statement about [REDACTED] quitting CDCMI was made in an effort to persuade him [REDACTED] to accept the loss of his interest in the business," stated Rountree's writ. "It is clear from the context of the statement that the appellate court was mistaken in the observation that [REDACTED] quit CDCMI and willingly forfeited his interest in the profits."

In a post-trial brief filed on June 22, 2016, Breithaupt leveled accusations against ██████ that appeared similar to those previously alleged against the Fishers. Breithaupt said ██████ breached his fiduciary duty to CDCMI by secretly forming the two Another Chance entities, by secretly soliciting CDCMI employees to leave and go to work for the Another Chance entities, secretly applying for mental health rehabilitation and Access-to-Recovery contracts that CDCMI could have performed, defaming Fisher, and intentionally creating dissension among employees.
